FUNCTION WITH STYLE

Quality meets comfort and style

Function meets Quality

Established in 1982, since then Cello Wim Plast has been the leading manufacturer and supplier for high quality reinforced compounds. The company entered into the business of manufacturing superior Moulded Furniture in 1994, understanding the consumer needs and the importance of providing durable products in the market.

Today with over 40 years of combined experience in the plastic and furniture industry, Wim Plast has been one of the leading names in Moulded Furniture segment on national and global platform with its unique range of aesthetically superior equipments both for household and outdoor use.

With time, the company has expanded its collection of furniture products such as Chairs, Tables, Storage solutions, Kid's collection, Premium collection, Ladders and the endless list that suits your everyday's need. Besides foraying into the furniture category, the company has also taken up the initiative as 'Clean India, Green India' by introducing a wide range of Waste Management products, both for commercial and domestic use. In order to manufacture in bulk, the company has set up factories all across India followed with a strong distribution network to make their presence in all four regions of the country.

Over the years, the company has only believed in providing high quality durable products and has been successful in winning the consumer's priciest possession - their TRUST!

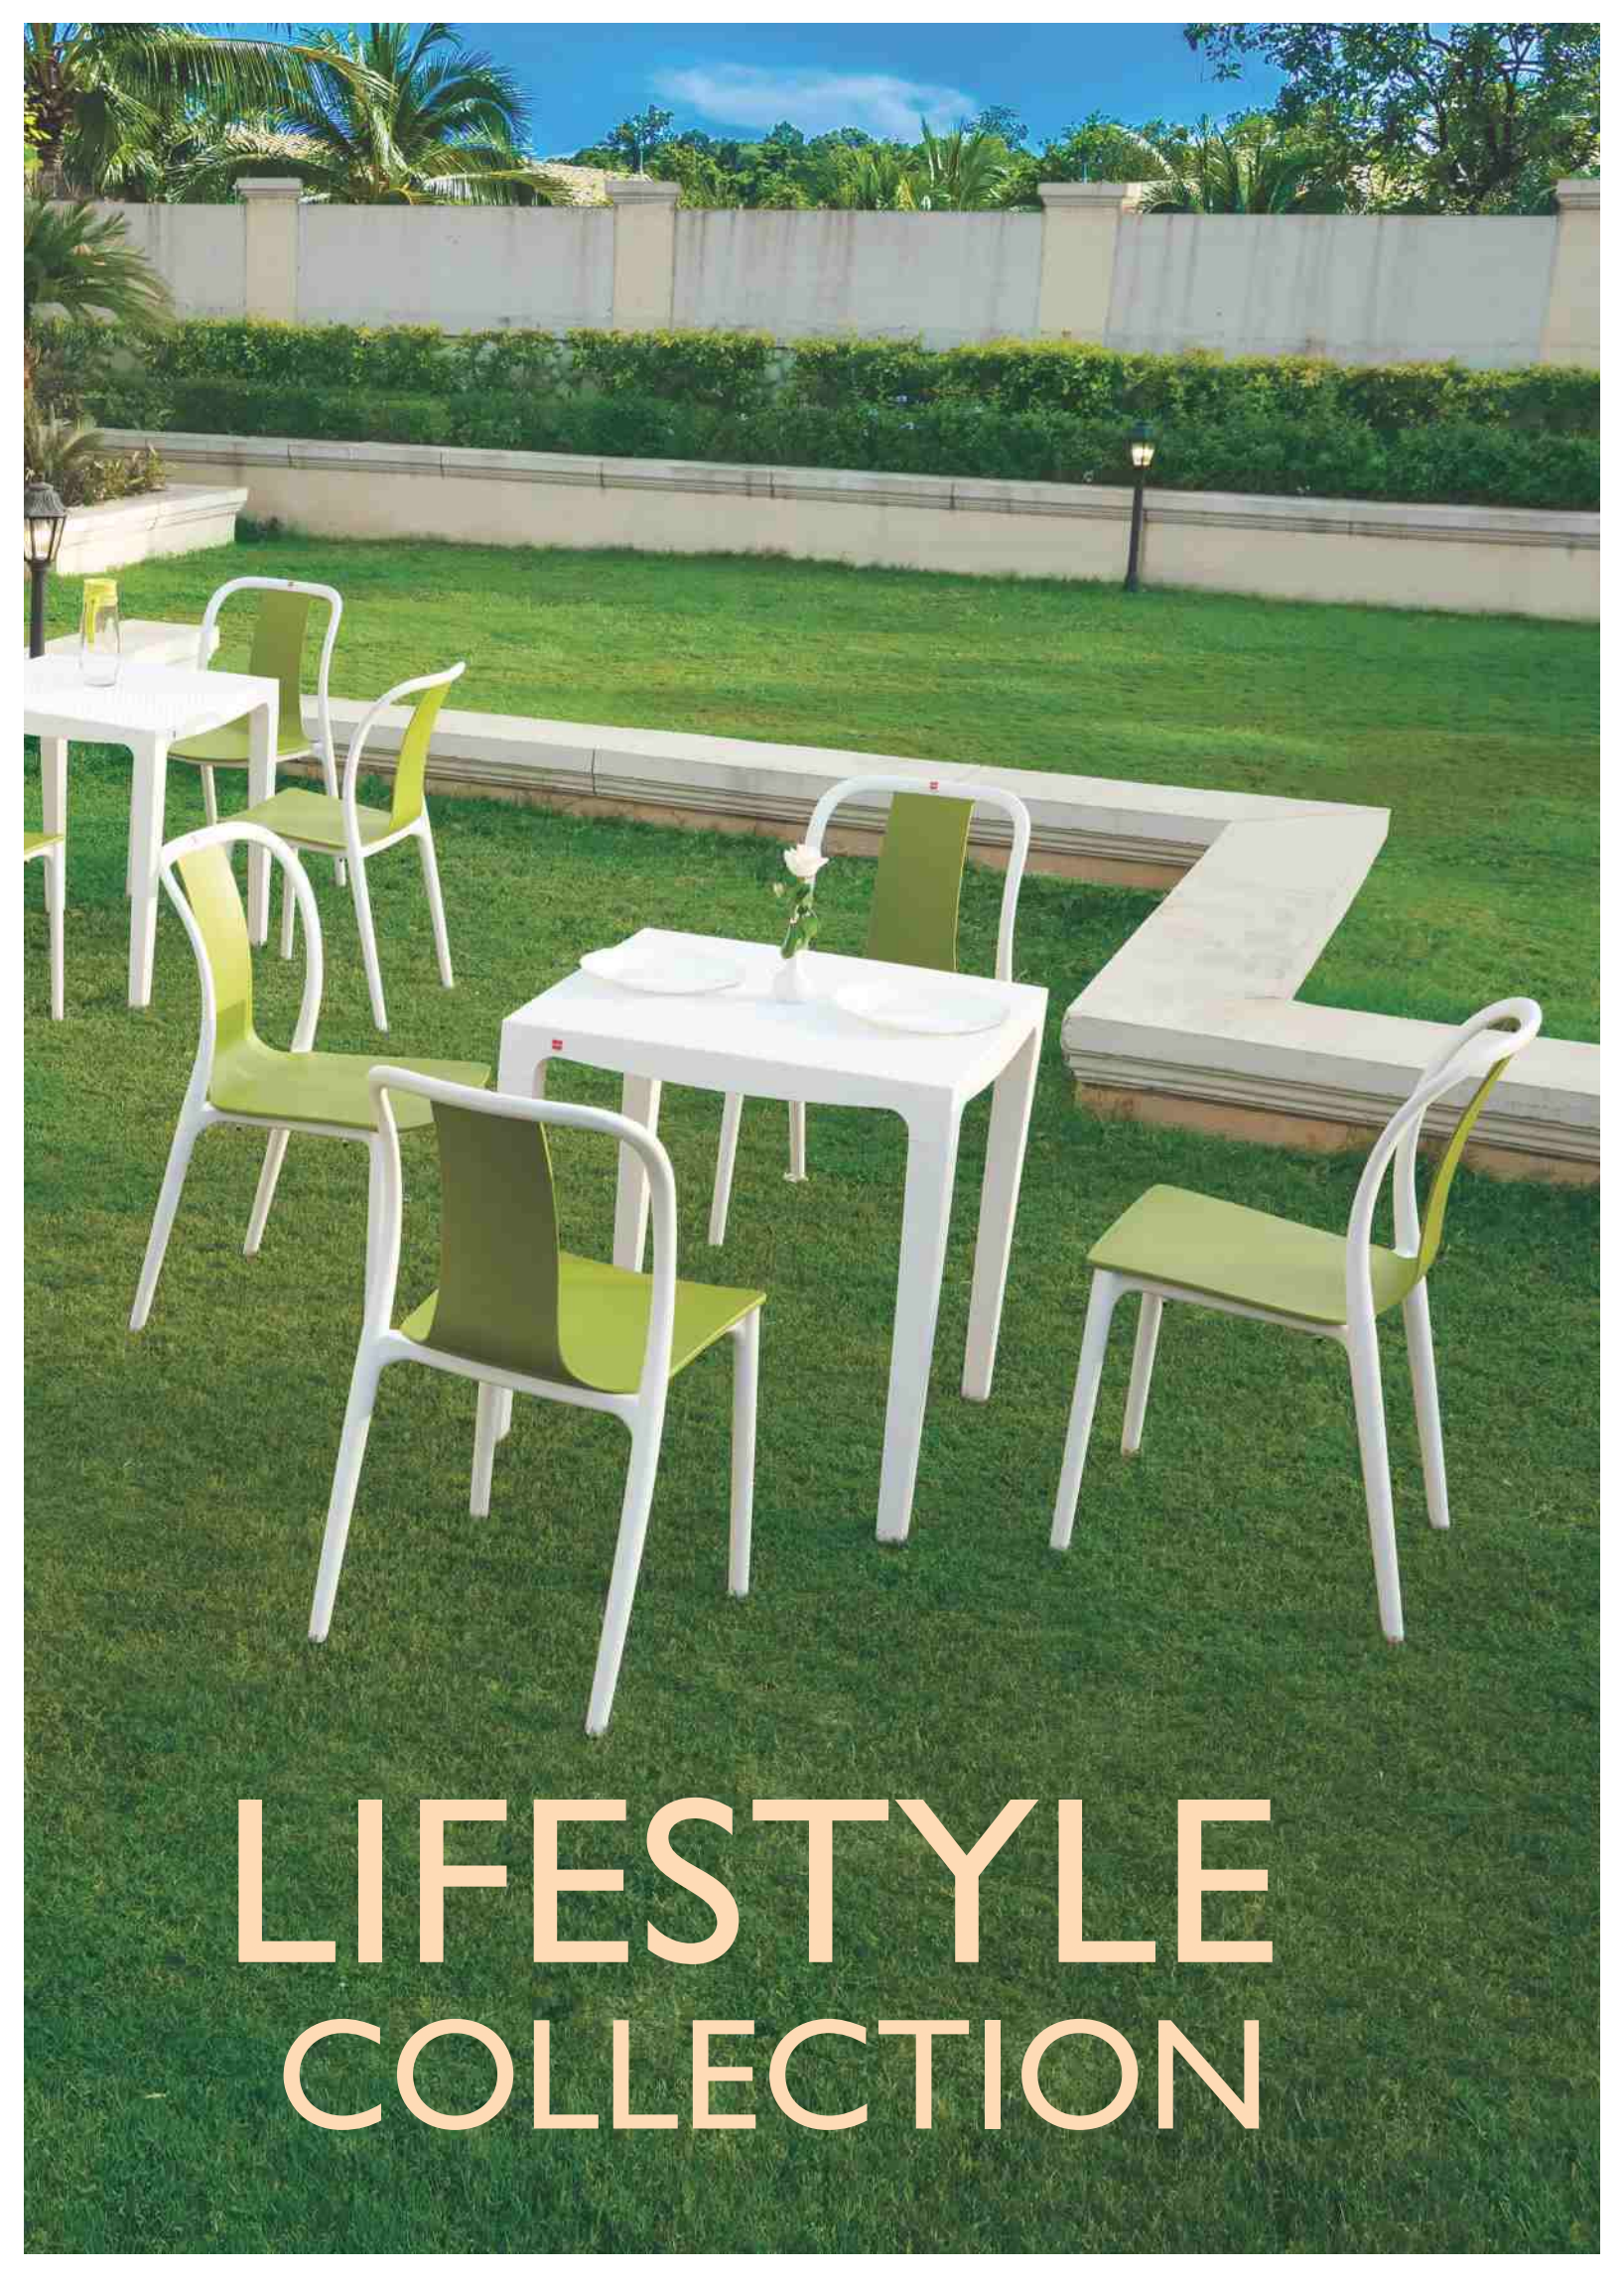

So, next time when you are planning to embellish your property or aspired for spotless environment say "HELLO to CELLO".

One stop solution to all your needs.

Your companion for life!!

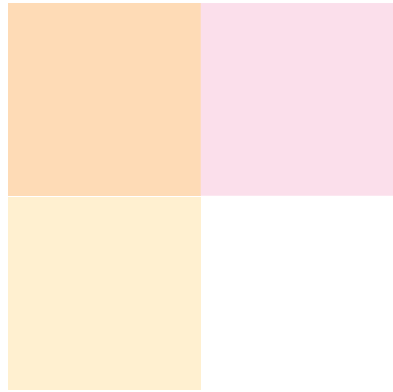

A photograph of an outdoor dining area on a green lawn. In the foreground, there is a white square table with four white chairs that have lime green seats and backs. The table is set with two white plates and a small vase with a single white flower. To the left, another similar table and chairs are partially visible. In the background, there is a low concrete wall, a dense green hedge, and a taller white fence. Beyond the fence, there are palm trees and other tropical plants under a clear blue sky. A black garden lamp is visible near the hedge.
