7. Despite service of notice and paper publication, no representation from any other sectorial/regulatory authorities has been received.
8. Petitioner companies submitted that there are no proceedings/investigation pending against both the petitioner companies under Sections 210-217, 219, 220, 223, 224, 225, 226 & 227 of the Companies Act, 2013. It is further submitted that there are no winding up petition is pending against the petitioner companies under the provisions of the Act. The Statutory Auditors have certified that the accounting treatment specified in the Scheme is in conformity with the accounting standards prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act.
9. We heard the Ld. Counsel for the petitioner companies, counsel for Income Tax Department and perused reports of the Office of the Regional Director, OL and Registrar of Companies and also gone through the material available on record.

10. The counsel appearing for the petitioner companies submitted that the petitioner companies have complied with all statutory requirements as per the directions of this Tribunal and filed the necessary affidavits. The petitioner companies also undertake to comply with statutory/regulatory requirements under the Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules made thereunder, as may be applicable.
11. On the basis of above facts and submissions made by the Learned Counsel representing the petitioner companies, representative of the Regional Director, Counsel for the Income Tax Authorities, the Registrar of Companies and on perusal of the Scheme, it appears that the requirements of the provisions of Sections 230 and 232 are satisfied by the petitioner companies. No objections to the scheme have been produced on record by the petitioners. We are of the considered view that the proposed Scheme of Amalgamation is bona fide and in the interest of the shareholders and creditors. In the result, Company Petition No. CP (CAA)/65 (AHM) 2025 in CA (CAA)/44 (AHM) 2025 can be allowed. The Scheme envisages Composite Scheme of Arrangement amongst Wim Plast Limited and Cello Consumer Products Private Limited and Cello World and their respective shareholders and creditors. and their respective shareholders and creditors.
12. Notwithstanding the above, if there is any deficiency found or, violation committed qua any enactment, statutory rule or regulation, the sanction granted by this Tribunal to the scheme will not come in the way of action being taken, albeit, in accordance with law, against the concerned persons, directors and officials of the petitioners.

13. While approving the Scheme as above, based on the declaration and reply submitted we further clarify that this order should not be construed as an order in granting any exemption from payment of stamp duty, taxes including Income Tax, GST, etc. or any other charges, if any, and payment in accordance with law or in respect of any permission/compliance with any of the regulatory authorities and with any other requirement which may be specifically required under any law. This order also does not grant any exemption/waiver/relief of on any proceedings/enquiry against the petitioner/s and its company/ies before the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, any other market regulator or any other statutory authority.
